CIVIL ACTION NO. 06-441-SLR

DECLARATION OF ELIZABETH TRAYNOR

I, ELIZABETH TRAYNOR, declare and state as follows:

1. I am the plaintiff in this litigation.
2. From May 1998 to September 2004, I was a professor at the Delaware College of Art and Design. I lived and worked in Wilmington, DE from August 31, 1994 to October 3, 2004, where I was a self-employed illustrator as well.
3. In June 2002, I met Davy Liu (Liu), a graphic artist, at a gathering of illustrators in New York City. At the time, I was a professor and the head of the Illustration Department at the Delaware College of Art and Design. I arranged for Liu to speak at the College as part of the Visiting Artists Lecture Series, an event that was open to the public as well as the college. Liu came to Delaware for this engagement on November 13, 2002. He gave the lecture at the Delaware Historical Society on November 14, 2002. He stayed at my house in Delaware from November 13 to 16 and November 18 to 19, 2002. He received a $500 honorarium as well as airfare for the trip to the Delaware College of Art and Design.

4. In April 2004, Liu contacted me to request my assistance with various matters relating to the operation of the Davy Liu Studio Gallery (Gallery). At the time he contacted me, and up until October 3, 2004, when I moved to California, I lived and worked in the state of Delaware. I subsequently returned to Delaware on December 15, 2004 and re-established residency, and I was a resident of Delaware at the time of filing the Complaint. At all times, Liu was aware of my location and contacted me by phone and by e-mail in Delaware.

5. Exhibit A attached hereto is a true and correct copy of an e-mail I received from Liu on April 23, 2004 while I was residing in Delaware. By phone Liu requested my help with the wording in his biography for use on his website, in printed materials, and in connection with the Gallery. I corrected the wording in the biography for him by telephone.

6. Exhibit B attached hereto is a true and correct copy of an e-mail I sent to Liu on June 5, 2004, while I was in Delaware. In this e-mail I assist Liu with grammar in a brief description of the Gallery in response to his request for my help.

7. Exhibit C attached hereto is a true and correct copy of an e-mail I received from Liu on August 3, 2004, while I was in Delaware. Liu seeks my assistance on a press release for the Gallery. Exhibit D attached hereto is a true and correct copy of e-mails I received from Liu on August 5, 2004 requesting an update on the progress of the press release as well as my response thereto, the attached, rewritten press release contained herein.

8. Exhibit E attached hereto is a true and correct copy of an e-mail I sent to Liu on August 16, while I was in Delaware, identifying specific pages on websites that sell different print racks possible for use in the Gallery. Liu had requested my assistance in finding prices for racks.

9. Exhibit F attached hereto is a true and correct copy of an e-mail I received from Liu on September 14, 2004, while I was in Delaware. Liu thanks me for writing the text for a mission statement and biographies of featured artists for the Gallery brochure.

10. Exhibit G attached hereto is a true and correct copy of an e-mail invitation for an event at the Gallery. While I was in Delaware, Liu requested that I send this Gallery e-mail invitation out to potential guests or buyers from my own list of colleagues.

11. Exhibit H attached hereto is a true and correct copy of an e-mail I sent, from Delaware, to my colleagues on July 31, 2004, with an additional copy of the same invitation sent to more colleagues on August 13, 2004. The e-mail included the invitation for the first show at the Gallery. Many of the people to whom I sent the invitation were residents of the state of Delaware, such as Cathy Traynor of Traynor Kirk & Co., an advertising agency located at the time at 1960 Superfine Lane #89 in Wilmington, DE, as well as Lynda Schmid, Admissions Director of Delaware College of Art and Design, John Breakey of Breakey Design, Jay Hooper, Ekaterini Korovessi, and Yuris Fuentes of DuPont, Barbara Garland of BBG Productions, Marla Dill of M.A. Dill & Associates, Michael Dodson of Dodson Design, and Sara Matthys of Synchrogenix, Inc., among others.

12. Between July 15 and July 31, 2004, Liu enlisted the services of Cathy Traynor at Traynor Kirk & Co. to develop a name for a show at the Gallery. The name conceived by Traynor Kirk & Co., Pros Unveiled, is a name Liu adopted for the entire Gallery.

13. Exhibit I attached hereto are true and correct copies of website pages for the Gallery, www.davyliu.com, showing that viewers may browse various pieces of art and click to items for purchasing information.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Davy Liu Studio Gallery

Artist Statement

To Capture lifes harmony, emotions, feeling through paint, brushes, experiences, and faith.

Bio

Davy Liu's passion lies in painting. Creation is his greatest inspiration. His work is continually evolving through his experience in the artistry of life itself.

*Native to Taiwan, Liu and his family moved to the U.S
 when he was thirteen. Struggling to adapt to the western culture, he found a hiding place in the arts. Here he found joy through his gift of creative expression.*

found joy through his gift of creative expression. After graduating from Ringling School of the arts, Liu went on to become a Disney animator and worked on such films as Beauty and the Beast, Aladdin, and Lion King as well as other films for Warner Brothers and Industrial Light and Magic.

Liu currently maintains a working studio and gallery in Laguna Beach, California. He travels to many old civilizations and untouched villages throughout China where he leads tours and gives workshops. When movie lovers think of films such as The Lion King, Toy Story, Shrek, and Star Wars, they think of delightful entertainment, funny lines, and maybe, "I have that DVD!". But behind these great films there are the deeply creative minds of the artists whose visual imaginations and essential drawing and painting skills bring the ideas to life.

The Davy Liu Studio Gallery is pleased to announce the show "Pros Unveiled", which opens Saturday, August 21 and continues until October 2. The show features the personal and professional art of John Watkiss, Bill Perkins, Erik Tiemens, Dave Goetz, and Davy Liu, all important artists in the animation and film industries. Each artist presents drawings and paintings inspired by their daily observations of life and art. The great understanding of color, design, and visual impact that brings them such success in their professional careers is realized even more deeply in their personal work.

All of these California artists have held multiple titles. John Watkiss is an illustrator, production designer, professor, comicbook artist, storyboard artist and more. He has given many lectures on human anatomy at the Royal College of Art in London, and he created the look of Tarzan, the great animated epic you see on the silver screen. He lives in the Glendale area and is currently working with the Coca Cola Museum in Atlanta and the Ford Museum in Detroit. Erik Tiemens is currently art directing Star Wars: Episode 3 with Lucas Films. He is also a painter, color and lighting director, concept designer, and lecturer, He lives in Sausalito. Davy Liu is a production designer, illustrator, teacher, painter, and gallery owner who has worked on films from Beauty and the Beast and The Lion King to Atlantis. He is currently producing his own movie, The Giant Leaf. He lives in Aliso Viejo. A painter and teacher, Bill Perkins is also known for his work as an animation art director, storyboard and layout artist, and development artist on films such as Shrek, Fantasia 2000, Space Jam, and others. He resides in Moore Park. Dave Goetz is an animation art director and production designer for films such as Atlantis and The Hunchback of Notre Dame, as well as a painter and teacher. He lives in the Los Angeles area.

The public is invited to meet John Watkiss, Erik Tiemens, Dave Goetz, Bill Perkins, and Davy Liu at the opening on Saturday, August 21, 2004, with live music and demonstrations by the artists from noon to 6 pm, and the Artists Reception from 6 to 9 pm. Drawings, paintings and production work will be on display and for sale. Davy Liu Studio Gallery is located at 3275K Laguna Canyon Road, Laguna Beach, CA. The gallery is open Monday through Saturday, 10 am to 7 pm, or by appointment. Contact 949-497-3993 or www.davyliu.com

Hi Davy and Kelley,

Here is my suggestion for the copy inside the Gallery brochure. Please let me know what you think... and give input on the title for "Mission Statement". You can call or write; phone number is below. Thanks! E.T.

NOTE: Usually, a Mission Statement is followed by a statement that includes "To", such as "Arts Center has a mission to bring knowledge of art to students from all walks of life." (I made that up.) I don't know if we even need a title. Why can't we just have a statement by itself?

'Gallery Mission': (OR 'Our Vision' OR 'Gallery Vision' OR 'Our Purpose'... any ideas besides "Mission Statement" (too academic)).

Davy Liu Studio Gallery presents the personal work of professional artists; a celebration of their passion for excellence in the visual arts.

We feature accomplished artists from the film, animation, and graphic arts industries. Our artists offer drawings and paintings inspired by their daily observations of life and art. The keen understanding of color, design, and visual impact that brings them such success in their professional careers is realized even more deeply in their personal work.

Artist's bios inside:

John Watkiss is an illustrator, production designer, professor, comic book artist, storyboard artist, and more. He was the art director for the animated epic Tarzan, and has worked on many other films.

Erik Tiemens is currently art directing Star Wars: Episode 3 with Lucas Films. He has worked on films such as Forrest Gump, Jurassic Park, and Cliffhanger. He has been a plein air painter since childhood. (?)

Davy Liu is a production designer, illustrator, painter, and producer who has worked on films from Beauty and the Beast and The Lion King to Atlantis. He is currently producing his own animated movie, The Giant Leaf.

Bill Perkins art directed Aladdin. He is also known for his skills as a painter and teacher, and his work as a development, storyboard, and layout artist on many films, including Shrek, Fantasia 2000, and Space Jam.

Dave Goetz is an animation director and production designer for films such as Atlantis and The Hunchback of Notre Dame, as well as a painter and teacher. He is currently working as a director at Walt Disney Feature Animation.

Elizabeth Traynor is an illustrator and teacher whose work is seen nationwide in books, magazines, newspapers, advertising, packaging, and more. She is also the director of Davy Liu Studio Gallery.

Hi Folks,

Here's the invitation for the first show at Davy's studio gallery. I'll be going out there from August 18 to 23 to help set up the show, get my feet wet as gallery manager, (enjoy the ocean breeze, canyon views, beach and sunshine) etc. You are all, of course, invited! Ok, ok, it's a bit far for most of you, but heck, come to the next show... or the one after that! Any excuse to travel is a good excuse.

The studio will be having an open house from noon to 6, more casual than the reception in the evening, with some of the artists giving demonstrations, a jazz band, etc.

I'm including some additional photos from my trip, too, for those of you who are interested in where I'm going to be living, as well as a photo of Beau that I took at Wangaum in the Poconos last weekend, and a gorgeous evening beach scene from Laguna Beach.

It's a jam-packed next seven weeks for me, but I'm going to be travelling to NYC and Boston in September to see some of you for a day or two. For my friends here in the mid-Atlantic, I'm still here until October, then I'll be back to the East Coast for a book tour in November or December, possibly Christmas, vacation next May, etc., so it's not as though I'll be gone forever! And of course, there's ICON4 in San Francisco next year for those of you in that loop. It's a small world these days...
